

CWA Competition and Show 2019

May 18th – 19th

We look forward to seeing you this year at the:

Scottish Rite Memorial Center
6151 H Street
Sacramento, CA 95819

There are several items that you need to be aware of and your help in these areas is greatly appreciated:

Sellers need a seller's permit, and we need to have that number on file in case the tax people visit. If you get a regular seller's permit (not a temporary one) it is good forever. There is no cost, just do the paper work. Please enter the number of then entry form and bring the certificate with you.

Friday "Potluck": 5:00 to 7:00 Friday night. Bring your favorite dish. The club will provide meat, bread drinks, plates and utensils

Set-up: Friday 12:00 until 7:00pm, and 7:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. Saturday morning.

Show Hours:

Saturday. Set-up

9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. open to public

Sunday:

8:00 am to 9:00 am - exhibitors only

9:00 am to 4:00 pm - open to public

4:00 pm to 6:00 pm - final clean up

Entries can be made by filling out the application and mailing as instructed on the form or via our website: capitalwoodcarvers.org

Judging Entries: We will begin accepting entries Friday afternoon beginning at 2:00 pm until 7 pm Friday evening. There will be Saturday morning check in also, starting at 7:30 am. All entries must be in by 9:00 am Saturday morning. To start the judging on time, we would appreciate if you would bring your entries in Friday night.

This year CCG (California Carving Guild) judges will judge the competition, using CCG criteria.

Table Displays: Please bring your own table judging scoring and criteria.

RV Carvers & RV Guests: We have a large parking lot area that is fenced, but NO HOOK-UPS FOR RVs Security: We have no overnight security guard; however there has been no problem with this facility. It is locked up at night.

covering, making it covers the whole table and reaches the floor in front. We encourage you to carve, wood burn, chip carve or demonstrate while at your display table. This will allow visitors see what our art is really all about.

Electricity: If you requested electricity, bring your own cord (approximately 25-ft), and cover them for safety.

Tape: If you need to use tape to secure cords or other items, the only tape allowed by Scottish Rite is Blue Painters Tape, there is a severe penalty being charged for use of duct tape.

Donations: We appreciate any carving donations for the silent auction, hourly raffle or country store.

Volunteers Needed: We are always looking for volunteers to help with the show, from working at the reception desk to demonstrating a carving technique. Please contact any of the show committee members if you can help out.

VIP Tickets You may purchase VIP tickets from Joe You, they are $3.00 each, good for both days entrance. Quite a bargain as normal the entrance fee is $5.00

Central Display: After judging all competition pieces, entries will be displayed on a central table for the duration of the show. Carvings will be grouped by category and be accompanied by the ribbon and a card with carver's name, carving level and category. All entries must remain on display for the entire show.

Food: Lunch will not be available. Bring your own lunch both days

All exhibitors are asked to keep their displays up the full time until Sunday closing. Thank you for your cooperation in ensuring a complete, well presented show from start to finish.

For more information:

cwasecretarty01@gmail.com or call:

Show Committee:

Andy Hiroshima	916 393-2028
Alison Cook	916 485-7893
Barbara Rippetoe	916 600 4618
Debora Remington	916 402-9118
Kathi Gervais	916 783-5477